Museveni reassures Makerere

By Christine Ochola

When President Yoweri Museveni was invited to address the students of Makerere University during the 80th graduation ceremony, the provost assured him that Makerere University has graduated many competent scientists that have contributed to the growth of Uganda and the region. Museveni appreciated that Makerere University has graduated thousands of students who have contributed to the growth of the country.

Planned activities

In his address, Museveni assured students and their parents that the government will continue to support Makerere University. He assured them that the government will continue to support Makerere University.

Stakeholders

Museveni appreciated Makerere University for its contribution to the growth of the country. He appreciated the fact that Makerere University has graduated thousands of students who have contributed to the growth of the country.

Corruption

Museveni warned Makerere University against corruption. He assured students that the government will continue to support Makerere University.

New body to regulate vocational institutions

By Elizabeth Birosha and David Luvungi

Cabinet has approved a new body that will regulate vocational and technical education. The body will be known as the Council of Vocational and Technical Education. The Council will have the power to regulate vocational and technical education in the country.

BETWEEN THE LINES: About the policy

The new body will regulate vocational and technical education in the country. It will have the power to regulate vocational and technical education in the country.

Vocational and technical education

Vocational and technical education will be regulated by the new body. The new body will have the power to regulate vocational and technical education in the country.

New body

The new body will regulate vocational and technical education in the country. It will have the power to regulate vocational and technical education in the country.

National Council for Vocational and Technical Education

The National Council for Vocational and Technical Education will be the new body that will regulate vocational and technical education in the country.

UNIVERSITY

The University of Education and Technology (UETE) has opened admissions for the 2019 academic year. The University has opened admissions for the 2019 academic year.

UNIVERSITY

The University of Education and Technology (UETE) has opened admissions for the 2019 academic year. The University has opened admissions for the 2019 academic year.

UETE welcomes more

Students of the University of Education and Technology (UETE) have been welcomed to the institution. The University has opened admissions for the 2019 academic year.

Mining and Mineral Bill

The Mining and Mineral Bill has been approved by the Uganda Parliament. The Bill has been approved by the Uganda Parliament.

The Bill has been approved by the Uganda Parliament. The Bill has been approved by the Uganda Parliament.