

MUK VC Up In Arms With NTV

Makerere University Vice Chancellor Prof. Barnabas Nawangwe is not happy at all with NTV because of what he calls 'spreading lies about Makerere University'. Nawangwe's beef for NTV, its staff and management was sparked off by a story they aired on Monday night, in which they redported that students at Makerere University had become stranded after their lecturers going on strike. However, Nawangwe refuted the story and branded the TV station as 'Liars.' He even took to his twitter handle and tweeted thus; "I wonder why NTV is spreading fake news about a strike at Makerere University? The University opened for classes yesterday and many classes took place." He added that "I welcome our students to the start of the semester. This is to inform all students that lectures started today and they should report for lectures according to timetables."

Prof. Barnabas Nawangwe